HEAD OF COLLEGE

Oxley
COLLEGE

Located in Bowral in the Southern Highlands, 120 km south-west of Sydney, Oxley College is a growing co-educational, independent, non-denominational school catering to 220 students in the Junior School and 450 in the Senior School. Oxley is small enough for the education of students to be personal and humane, yet large enough to provide a wide range of academic options and activities. The College prides itself in focusing on enlightened academic rigour and care for the whole child. Students are strikingly warm and open-minded and the staff are both talented and highly professional. The College aspires to give its students the advantages of a 'big city' school while also giving them all the advantages of living and learning in a culturally rich and connected rural community.

With the appointment of Mr Michael Parker as Headmaster of Newington College in Sydney from 2019, Oxley College invites applications from candidates who can continue Mr Parker's outstanding and inspirational leadership which has established Oxley College as one of NSW's top regional schools.

Please obtain information about the position by calling the consultant assisting the College, Kathy McLean, of Fish & Nankivell, on 0414 376 698. Applications will close on Monday, 16 April 2018. A concurrent search is being conducted.
