1. Age – the age the student has turned or will turn this year.

2. Official school swimming costumes must be worn whilst competing. Competitors who wish to wear specialised racing suits must have them approved prior to the carnival by the Sports Administrator. The general rule is if the Oxley shop has the suit design or similar available for purchase the request will not be approved. Males may wear Oxley PE shorts and female competitors may wear Oxley PE shorts with the school swimming costume.

3. Students must only compete in their age group.

4. There are no limits to the number of events a competitor may enter. A competitor may swim in their age relay plus 1 older aged relay.

5. All races are timed. Rankings will be calculated after all races have been completed. Heats to be graded by marshals and are not based on Houses.

6. i) Open events consist of 15, 16, 17, 18+ years.
   ii) Junior events consist of 12, 13, 14 years.

7. The 200m IM and 100m Freestyle points count toward the Age Championship.

8. The decision of the judges is final.

9. If a student is away on the day that an event is programmed for any reason other than a school endorsed activity, the student will miss out on the event and cannot be timed at a later date.

9. All students may compete in the swim thru. Relays points will be allocated once final placings are calculated. Swim thurs will be contested in 3 groups – Years 7/8; Years 9/10 and Years 11/12 and each combined age group will swim for 7 minutes.
