

Game changers

Australia is currently alive with football fever, thanks in large part to Sam Kerr and the mighty Matildas. Australia's round of 16 match against Denmark saw an audience of 2.29 million people across Australia's capital cities, with a total estimated audience across all streaming platforms of approximately 6.94 million people – an incredible figure that surpasses the State of Origin...

Click to read Pin Oak

Features

A message from Mr Scott Bedingfield, Head of College

While the weeks are flying by, I would like to share this Welcome to Term...

Demystifying maths with Maths Help at Oxley

Oxley's Maths Help Program runs twice a week and is very accessible to students who...

Snowsports

Congratulations to the Oxley Snowsports team, who recently competed in the 2023 Subaru Northern NSW...

Good & Other News

Achievements – Oxley out and about

Congratulations to Seneca Bells (Year 12) who has been appointed Captain of the NSW Equestrian...

Junior School Assembly Award Recipients – so far this Term

Congratulations to these Junior School Students for their outstanding efforts Term 2 Week 1...

Senior School Athletics Carnival Champions and Results

The last day of Term 2 saw the Senior School Athletics Carnival run. Congratulations to...

Under your radar: Niger's quiet coup

While banners of Barbie, Trump and the war in Ukraine continue to grab our headlines...

Introducing: Celebrity Scoop

Feminist icon Elton has been accused of

Introducing: The Style Section

The world behind a garment

When was the last time that you

Word of the Week

Barstool (bar- stool) As we all know by