

PINOAK

EDITION 163 ARCHIVE PRINT IN THIS ISSUE

20 MAY 2024

Features

Aliens will start WW3

Kourtney Kardashian, an influencer, has never said anything notable in her life. As a reality...

A Message from the Oxley Leadership Team

Term 1 is often characterised by adjustment and settling in; however, an eleven-week term is...

The Debt Gala takes on the Met Gala

The annual Met Gala, a star-studded extravaganza of wealth and fashion, has long been a...

Why is my brain so loud?

Our teenage brain is constantly going through changes. Connections are being strengthened and unused connections...

Inspiration

Dune: Part 2 – a masterpiece!

As the credits roll, the only thing that I'm thinking right now is Man. That...

Descent into darkness: The Picture of Dorian Gray

'The Picture of Dorian Gray' by Oscar Wilde is a fascinating tale of vanity, morality...

Little Women: A story for many generations

Stories. Something that can reveal new takes about a person's life. Something that can inspire...

The Style Section: Met Gala 2024

The Met Gala is held on the first Monday of May, introducing the start of...

Good & Other News

Sporting Achievements

Sports Reporters: Annabel A (Year 11), Annabelle D (Year 11), Harry G (Year 11), Lily...

Spoken Word Achievements

Congratulations to Flynn G (Year 10) and Violet F (Year 11) on winning their finals...

Common Ground Workshop: tolerance

Oxley students Chloë S (Year 10), Chloë D (Year 10), Alex N (Year 10), and...

Galleries

Junior School Assembly Awards

Term 2, Week 2 Term 2...

Mother's Day Breakfast

Ruby P, Year 10...

Grandparents' Day (Part 1)

Year 6 Canberra Trip